

Scituate Arts Association
"Arts Alive!" Weekend:
Plein Air Painting
For Artists of All Ages
Scituate Harbor & Environs
June 9 & 10

On June 9 & 10, the Scituate Arts Association invites artists of all ages-youths to seniors-and skills-novice to professional-to experience Plein Air Painting in Scituate Harbor and the surrounding environs including Lighthouse Point, Cole Parkway, the Marina area and Young's Boatyard. Photographers are welcome as well.

Those who plan to paint are asked to provide their own lunch and water. There is limited access to water and restroom facilities in the area, inquire at Front Street Gallery on signing in.

Experienced local artists will be painting at various times and locations, ask at the Gallery where they might be painting. Registration will entitle participants to take part in a "Wet Paint Show" at Scituate Arts Association's Front Street Art Gallery on Sunday, June 10 from 1:30-4 pm and to be eligible to receive a modest cash award. The public will have an opportunity to vote for their choice in "The People's Choice Award." Works will continue on display through Sunday, June 24th.

Our Children & Family plein air tent will be up at the Scituate Town Library from 9:30 to 11. Registration is free. Bring your portable chair, snacks/water and sun screen/bug spray. All supplies are provided by the SAA. You will have the opportunity to display your child's work at the library, should you choose to.

Children under 12 must have a parent or responsible adult accompany them. Parents/responsible adults are welcome to bring their own art supplies with them and join in as well. Advance registration is required of family participants. Sign up online by going to the Library's Event Calendar or inquire at the Circulation Desk.
